SUSPECTED GAS STATION ROBBER ARRESTED

FRISCO, TX – The suspected robber in three gas station robberies in Frisco and several others in the surrounding area was arrested last night. Sam Mann, a 39-year-old Aubrey resident, was arrested by the Little Elm Police Department at around 9 p.m. Monday evening after he committed an armed robbery at a gas station in that city.

Frisco investigators believe that Mann is responsible for two armed robberies in Frisco on Sunday morning at Valero (249 Main Street) and Quick Trip (4645 Main Street), as well as one yesterday afternoon at 7-Eleven (8130 Dallas Parkway). In all three incidents, Mann is suspected of brandishing a knife and taking small amounts of currency from the stores. Mann is also suspected of several other armed robberies in the surrounding cities of Little Elm, Aubrey, and Denton.

For additional information on the three robberies that occurred in Frisco, refer to Frisco Police Department CFS# 11-034249, 11-034251, and 11-034626.
